Give it a Go Days are defined as non-competitive education development clinics for riders and certified coaches of all ages and skill levels. Participants register for the clinic directly with their club and ride a Dressage Canada test of their choice with a judge providing feedback on how to improve their performance in the ring. Riders will then have an opportunity to work with the clinician to improve their performance based on the feedback received from the clinician and another opportunity to ride the same test again to measure improvement.

No prizes, placing or scores will be ranked during Give it a Go Days
