Equestrian Canada Statement of Principle

Equestrian Canada (EC), the national equestrian federation of Canada, supports adherence to humane treatment of horses in all competitions under its jurisdiction.

All persons shall be committed to:

1. Upholding the welfare of horses, regardless of value, as a primary consideration in all activities;
2. Requiring that horses be treated with kindness, respect, and compassion, and that they never be subjected to mistreatment;
3. Ensuring that all equestrians including owners, trainers and competitors or their respective agents use responsible care in the handling, treatment and transportation of their horses as well as horses placed in their care for any purpose;
4. Providing for the continuous well-being of horses by encouraging routine inspection and consultation with health care professionals and competition officials to achieve the highest possible standards of nutrition, health, comfort, sanitation and safety as a matter of standard operating procedure;
5. Providing current information on Code of Practice for the Care and Handling of equines and other equine health and welfare initiatives;
6. Continuing to support scientific studies on equine health and welfare;
7. Requiring owners, trainers and competitors to know and follow their sanctioning organization's rules, and to work within industry regulations in all equestrian competitions; and
8. Actively promoting the development of and adherence to competition rules and regulations that protect the welfare of the horse.

The standard by which conduct or treatment will be measured is that which a person who is informed and experienced in generally accepted equine training and competition procedures would determine to be neither cruel, abusive, nor inhumane.

GENERAL RULES & CONDITIONS OF ENTRY FOR WESTMAN DRESSAGE COMPETITIONS

(* indicates a change to or a new rule. If it is a change, the change will be italicized)

EQUESTRIAN CANADA RULES: Every class offered herein is covered by the Rules and Specifications of the current (2018) rules of EC and will be held and judged in accordance with the EC Rule Book. (Article A602.2)

Per Article A801, every entry at an EC-sanctioned competition shall constitute an agreement by the person responsible that the owner, lessee, trainer, manager, agent, coach, driver or rider, and horse shall be subject to the constitution and rules of Equestrian Canada and any additional rules set by the competition. It is the responsibility of all individuals participating in any capacity in EC sanctioned competitions to be knowledgeable regarding the EC constitution and the applicable rules of EC and the additional rules, if any, imposed by the competition. Do not participate in this EC sanctioned competition in any capacity if you do not consent to be bound by the constitution and rules of EC and any additional rules imposed by the competition.

CURRENT DRESSAGE TESTS: All EC tests including freestyle tests for Level 1 to Level 4 may be downloaded from the Equestrian Canada website <https://www.equestrian.ca/sport/dressage/tests>. When downloading, note that the tests will reproduce (copy) only on 8 ½ X 14 paper. Freestyle tests for the miscellaneous Walk Trot and Training level freestyle go to <http://www.cadora.ca/dressage-tests/>. For the Pee Wee Dressage tests go to <http://westmandressage.com/upcoming-events/shows/> (also included in prize list).

ENTRIES: All membership cards must be presented at the show office upon arrival to validate your entries. For subsequent shows in which you enter, this will not be necessary. If you do not have your membership proof, you will not be allowed to show without purchasing the appropriate temporary membership(s). Westman Dressage accepts Dressage Winnipeg or Manitoba Pony club memberships, membership with Manitoba Horse Trials, and memberships from dressage clubs based in other provinces (for competitors coming from out of province) in lieu of Westman Dressage membership. To apply for an Equine Canada Bronze Level membership go to <https://www.equestrian.ca/programs-services/licences> to apply online.

Athletes who are bringing horses to the show for “familiarization” must have appropriate Memberships.

EMERGENCY PLAN: In case of an injury to a spectator, athlete or horse, the announcer will call for an immediate halt in all rings. All stabled horses shall remain in that location until further notice, vehicle traffic is requested to refrain from moving. Jodi Baxter is our designated EMO with First Aid Training. Please refer to Westman Dressage’s Emergency Action Plan.

NO PHONE OR LATE ENTRIES WILL BE ACCEPTED: All entries must be accompanied by a hard copy Waiver of Liability duly signed by the appropriate person (athlete, owner, parent/guardian) and dated (if you entered online a hard copy must be signed at the show office on Friday). All entries (whether hard copy or submitted online) must be accompanied by a cheque or cash for the appropriate fees and made out to Westman Dressage. Parent or guardians must sign for junior exhibitors. Failure to do so will result in an inability to participate in the show. If the show fills up a wait list will be created and you will be contacted if a spot comes available and you will be allowed to enter even if it is after the entry deadline.

DRUG FEES & TESTING: Drug fees are mandatory for Equine Canada competitions and must be included with entry fees. For rules governing equine Medications, please see Rules of Equine Canada, General Regulations, Chapter 10 (Equine medication Control) AND Dressage Rules, Chapter 17 (Equine Medications). Any horse entered in any class at a competition may be selected for equine medication control testing while at the event location (Article A602.5). Athletes are also subject to the Medication Control rules set by Sport Canada and may be tested.

COGGINS TEST: a negative coggins test result, completed within the last 6 months, is required.

CANCELLATIONS: Competitors cancelling after the official closing date will only be refunded entry fees and stabling costs (unless stall has been used), minus the administration fee, upon receipt of a veterinarian’s certificate of disability or a doctor’s certificate. Documentation with an accompanying letter of explanation must reach the Show Secretary within 30 days of the last day of the competition.

SUBSTITUTION FEES: There will be a $10 administration fee for substituting a horse and/or athlete show entry after closing date. All appropriate waivers must be signed and memberships in place. (Article E 7.11.10)

REPORTING FOR COMPETITION: Competitors arriving on the show grounds should report to the show office to verify your membership card, also to confirm that all is in order with your entry forms and classes pay any fees owing as well as pick up your show numbers. This is expected even if you are using your own numbers. For security reasons, we need to know which horses are on the grounds and ensure that we have the correct contact information. The show office will be open from 11:00 AM until after 8:00 PM on Friday, and opens one-half hour before the show starts on Saturday and Sunday. For those arriving Friday afternoon, please report to the show office as soon as you arrive. Provide a copy of your EC sport license (listing amateur status if you have amateur status). You can arrive starting at 11:00 AM on Friday. You must leave the Keystone Centre by 9:00 PM on Sunday.

DRESS: Bronze level competitions Walk/Trot through Fourth level must wear: a dark coloured or grey jacket or tailored dressage vests with a long or short sleeved shirt (tailcoats not permitted), contrasting collars, points, pins stripes and piping are allowed, safety approved protective headgear, white or light coloured breeches (Juniors are permitted to wear jodhpurs and Jodhpur boots), tie, bow tie, hunting stock or, choker and gloves. Dark coloured riding boots (plain laced or with zippers). Dark coloured half chaps or half boots zippered over short boots may be worn. Spurs are optional (See Article E 4.1.8)

NUMBERS: must be worn and visible at all times in the warm-up, schooling and/or exercise areas as well as in the competition rings, whether the horse is under saddle or not. This requirement includes non-competition horses. (Article E 7.11.2 and E 7.11.3)

HORSE RECORDINGS: are not required for Bronze level competitions. (Article A302)

SHOW SCHEDULE: Warm-ups in the competition ring will be available on Friday. Competition will start at approx. 4PM on Friday. Competitions generally start between 8 and 9 am on both Saturday and Sunday and continue until completion of the classes based on entries. In the event of changes to the schedule (due to scratches or lack of participants), day sheets will be posted daily in the morning of competition. These sheets will inform all competitors of the most current and correct order of go and will override previous scheduling. It is the competitor's responsibility to check for any possible changes.

WARM-UP: Horses may be schooled only in the designated areas. Schooling of horses at non-championship competitions may only be done by EC Sport License holders (see Article E 7.11.12).

See Article E 4.9 Miscellaneous Equipment for equipment that is:

- A. Allowed in warm up area only but forbidden in competition
- B. Approved for competition but requiring permission.
- C. Approved for competition and no permission required.

To avoid disrupting the warm-up of other competitors, the Show Committee requests that the warm-up ring not be used for test calling. Horse may NOT be ridden in the actual competitions rings unless arranged ahead of time as per our paid "warm-up" program.

LUNGEING: (see EC Dressage Rules E 7.16) Lungeing is not permitted in an area where horses are being ridden. Lungeing and work in hand (unmounted) may only be done by the athlete, owner, coach, groom or Person Responsible ~~and must be under the supervision of a steward*~~. For lungeing equipment rules, see E4.9. It is not permitted to lunge a mounted horse at any competition, whether or not the horse is entered in the competition. Lungeing is permitted only in designated areas if space permits. Lungeing is not permitted in an area where horses are being ridden. Show organizers are not obliged to provide a lungeing area.

CROSS-ENTERING: More than one athlete may ride the same horse/pony at a competition providing the horse/pony is not entered by two athletes in the same class. The athletes can both be juniors or open or any combination of these providing they are not in the same class unless the class is divided into separate categories for the purpose of ribbons. The horse/pony must not compete against itself. (See Article E 7.11.8)

MAXIMUM NUMBER OF LEVELS/TESTS/CLASSES PER HORSE PER DAY: (See Article E 7.11.9) A horse may compete in any two, but only two consecutive levels and a maximum of four tests per day including the freestyle. More than one athlete may compete on a given horse but the horse may not compete against itself. Equitation, Materiale and non-EC classes are included in the maximum of four classes per day.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST: No child or adult may compete in a class in which horsemanship is a factor before a judge by whom said child or adult has been instructed, coached, or tutored with or without pay within 30 days of the date of competition. It is the responsibility of the athlete not to enter a class or ride in front of a judge from whom he/she has received instruction or a riding clinic in the previous 30 days. Any coach/trainer may not be judged by his/her student or owner of a horse they are training within 30 days of the coaching/training taking place. No child or adult may complete in a class where the judge who is officiating or the steward responsible for checking his/ her tack is a member of his/her immediate family. (See EC Dressage Rules Article E 7.0)

HORS CONCOURS ENTRIES: With permission of the organizing committee, horses may be entered hors concours (non-competitive). Hors concours entries are not eligible for prizes, placings or awards. Such entries must pay the full entry fee and are subject to all EC rules, including having EC horse identification where required. A horse may be ridden both as an hors concours entry and a competitive entry at the same competition. The maximum number of tests ridden whether competitive or not is four per day including freestyle. Hors concours entries are not permitted in championship competitions. (See EC Dressage Rules, Article E 7.11.11)

LIMIT OF ENTRIES, TIME CHANGES AND CLASS CANCELLATION: The show committee reserves the right to limit entries, combine or cancel classes, alter ring sizes, decide on any point not covered by the rules, and correct any errors or make any necessary changes to the prize list or program during the course of the competition year. Competitors will be notified at the earliest possible time of any changes. The onus will be upon the competitor to familiarize her/himself with such changes.

PROTECTIVE HEAD GEAR: All athletes, regardless of age or level of competition, must wear properly fitted and fastened safety approved protective headgear at all times when mounted at any EC-sanctioned Dressage competition at the event location. (See Glossary – Headgear Standards; see Article E 4.0; See article A905 General Rules EC).

WHIPS: The total length of the whip (including lash), used while mounted on a horse at any EC-sanctioned dressage competition, must not exceed 120 cm. 4. The total length of a whip (including lash), used while mounted on a pony at any EC-sanctioned dressage competition, must not exceed 100 cm. (Article E 4.8)

STABLING AND TACK STALLS: It is prohibited to tie a horse to a trailer. A mandatory stabling fee will be charged per horse. Stabling fees include final cleaning of the stall. Tack stalls are optional. It is the responsibility of the competitor to find someone to share with if they want to share the tack stall with someone else. Due to fire rules and insurance regulation, all tack, boxes, bedding, etc. can't be stored in aisle ways as they must be clear at all times in case of emergency.

HORSES: Horses may be removed from the show grounds after they have completed competition for the day, however the mandatory stabling fee will still be charged for each horse that competes. Once the horse has completed its last class, it may leave the show grounds (but we encourage you to stay for the presentation of awards and prizes!)

FAMILIARIZATION: Horses may be brought for familiarization at a cost of the $35 administration fee and mandatory stabling fee. No class need be entered. Consideration to competitors must be given i.e. if your horse is causing a disturbance please remove it from the competition area. Numbers must be worn at all times. Appropriate memberships are required for athletes who are attending with a horse for familiarization.

FREESTYLE TESTS: Bronze competitions require no minimum technical score. Furthermore, an athlete in a Bronze competition may enter freestyle without having ridden the technical test at the level of freestyle entered (e.g. competes in first level technical and second level freestyle) (Article E 10.6) an athlete must enter the arena within 20 seconds of the music starting. Exceeding 20 seconds will entail elimination. The music must cease at the final salute. If the music does not cease, a penalty of 0.5 of a mark is applied to the mark for the music. Each athlete may have a representative in the sound system booth to supervise the handling of the music.

MUSIC: CD's for Freestyle must be submitted when signing in at the show and you must have the music recorded at the start of the tape. Please bring an extra CD for backup. Check that your name is on the CD and indicate when it is to be started (e.g. after the salute, outside the ring, etc.) A sound check may be requested prior to entering the ring area. (Article 10.3)

PRESENTATION OF AWARDS: All show ribbons for classes can be picked up with tests during the day on both Saturday and Sunday after the end of the class. Champion and Reserve ribbons and/or prizes will be presented during lunch and after the completion of the show on Sunday afternoon. We wish to show appreciation and respect to our sponsors, therefore, the Show committee requests that competitors or their designates and their horses be suitably attired, with proper head gear, for presentation of awards. Photos will be taken for publication.

LIABILITY: It is a condition of entry that neither Westman Dressage nor the Show committee will be held responsible in any way for damage, injury, or loss to persons, horses or property of spectators or competitors. Waivers must be signed by all Persons Responsible and their parents/guardians, as well as the horses' legal owner.

PROTESTS: A protest at an EC sanctioned competition, other than those specific matters covered in discipline/breed sport rules, must comply with the following provisions:

- a) a protest is eligible only if made by an EC Sport License holder (i.e. owner, lessee, trainer, coach, official, competitor or authorized agent) or by any person listed in A212 (Exemptions from Sport Licenses) in the division in which the question arises;
- b) a Protest must be made in writing and addressed to the secretary of the OC at the event which the matter under consideration occurs. Every Protest must be signed and must be accompanied by a deposit of $100 in cash. (Note that protesting a horse's height also carries a $100 cash deposit). For full details see Article A 1204 General Regulations.

The soundness of a horse, when determined by an official veterinarian of the competition, or by a judge, is not subject to protest. (Article A1202).

COMPLAINTS: A Member may file a Complaint within 21 days of the date on which the alleged breach of the EC rule or policy occurred. All Complaints regarding a Dispute shall be sent directly to the President of EC or his/her designate, together with the required deposit (as per the Schedule of Fines and Penalties) and a brief summary, in writing, of the reasons and circumstances of the Dispute. For full details see Article A 1209 General Regulations.

CALLERS: A caller for tests will be provided at a cost of $3.00 per test for any competitors that would like a caller provided for them. You are allowed to have your own caller. Tests will be called over a sound system. All EC tests may be called during the competition, limited to reading the movement a maximum of twice without adding anything else which might assist the athlete. Caller's dress code is to be smart and casual Jeans slacks and mid length shorts are permitted. Inappropriately dressed callers may not be allowed to call a test. Callers may not wear personal electronic devices while calling tests.

SALUTE: Athletes must take the reins in one hand (either left or right) at the salute. Let the other arm drop loosely along the body and incline the head in a slight bow. Gentleman athletes may not remove their protective headgear at the salute. In freestyle classes, the initial and final salutes must be made inside the arena and with the horse and rider facing the judge at C. Failure to salute is an error of test and the rider will incur a two point penalty.

DOGS: must be under control, quiet and on a leash at all times. The use of flexi-type leashes is discouraged. Please review the Keystone Center's policy regarding dogs on the property. <http://www.keystonecentre.com/about/rules-regulations/> (Pets – always on a leash, allowed in stabling areas only, not in halls, show areas, or concession vicinity)

PARKING AND TRAVEL INSTRUCTIONS: Please go to <http://www.keystonecentre.com/about/maps/> for a map to find the Keystone Centre as well as where various hotels are for those who are looking for accommodation. When you enter the Keystone Grounds from 18th Street, you will turn east off 18th, travel east until the stop sign (you are on the keystone grounds) turn left (north) travel until a dead end, turn left (west) and the barn entrances and parking are straight ahead.

WESTMAN DRESSAGE: Reserves the right to refuse entries (article A805 EC) and reserves the right to ask anyone to leave the premises in the event of disorderly conduct, as per Show Management and Board of Directors of Westman Dressage.

CAMPING: For electricity only the charge is $30.00 plus GST per night. Electric and water with 30 amp service is $35 plus GST per night. For full service sites the rate is $40 plus GST per night for 30 amp service or $50 plus GST per night for 50 amp service. To make a reservation go to <http://www.keystonecentre.com/meetings/campground-reservations-form/>

WESTMAN DRESSAGE YEAR-END AWARDS:

To qualify for Westman Dressage Year end awards, you must have joined Westman Dressage prior to the first show. Awards are for the following levels: Open Walk-Trot, Beginner Rider Walk-Trot, Junior Training Level, Open Training Level, Open First Level, Open Second Level, Open Third Level, Open Fourth Level, and Freestyle.

An overall score for each rider for each show will be calculated by combining the two highest scores on technical tests, one each from 2 of the 3 days each having to be a different test within one level/division. The year-end award will be based on the summation of the overall scores from the two of the three shows for each individual within each level/division. The year-end awards will be presented at the Annual Meeting held on Sunday November 25, 2018.
